WOM 501 (C) (3) 990 Reports

Non-profit TIN: 58-1387722

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

Transparency and accountability are important principles in God’s Kingdom. Therefore, we are happy to publicly post summaries of our Form 990 Reports for the past several years. Each year, we file a Form 990 with the IRS. These reports are produced by the independent accounting firm, Thompson, Price, Scott, Adams & Co. P.A. based in Cleveland, Tennessee. Our fiscal year runs from September 1 to August 31. To view our Board members and staff photos, please click on the “About Us” section of our website.

As you review these figures, keep in mind that the vast majority of income is distributed to WOM mission workers around the world (see line 13, grants and similar amounts paid) -- who have been pre-approved through an extensive application process.

We rejoice that our Missionary Agency serves hundreds of mission workers in every part of the world! We serve as the Home Office for workers who are engaged in all types of ministry outreaches which include evangelism, church planting, discipleship, schools of all types, feeding programs, aviation, translation work, medical clinics, orphanages, human trafficking rescue, support roles, helps ministry, and much more. Truly, the sun never sets on WOM missionaries around the world! Our heart is to serve missionaries who are on the "frontlines" and provide them with a dependable Home Office along with the tools they need to succeed. For a detailed summary of all that we do for mission workers, please click on the “Missionary Agency” section of our website.

God’s Word has a lot to say about the importance of every member of the Body of Christ (1 Corinthians 12). Our ability to serve missionaries around the world comes from the enabling power of the Holy Spirit, our Board, Office Staff, and those of you who stand with this ministry through your prayers and financial support.

Thank You,

Jason R. Peebles
President WOM
